SECOND QUARTER 1984

ALUMNI NEWS / BRYAN COLLEGE / DAYTON, TENNESSEE

FIRST GOLDEN YEAR CLASS HONORED

Saturday, May 5, was Bryan's 51st Commencement and First Annual Alumni Day. During commencement exercises four of the six remaining members of the first graduating class were honored on the 50th anniversary of their historic graduation from the William Jennings Bryan University. Former Dean of the college, Dwight W. Ryther, presented a Golden Anniversary diploma to the '34 grads who were present.

The four were Sybil Lusk, class president; W. Logan Rector, vice president; R. Tibbs Maxey; and Mona Flerl, secretary-treasurer. Receiving their diplomas in absentia were Harriet Dunlap Treher and Marjorie Yancey Weaver.

At the Golden Year reunion luncheon, which was held in Brock Hall immediately following Commencement, schoolmates of the first eight years of Bryan's existence shared their testimonies of how the Lord has worked in their lives and of some early "typical college kid" experiences of life at Bryan. Members of the class of '34 who did not graduate from Bryan were presented certificates of merit for their participation in the Golden Year celebration.

Also present among the 85 alumni and guests were Mrs. Judson A. Rudd, President and Mrs. Theodore C. Mercer, and Dr. and Mrs. Karl E. Keefer, and second generation graduates of the class of '84 and their families.

Pictures of the first eight years of Bryan history were displayed along with the first seven Commoners, the 1934 Commencement program and contemporary news clippings of Bryan's first Commencement, which was held on June 13, 1934, at the Bryan Pavilion. After the luncheon there was a slide presentation of the growth of Bryan College from a "hole in the ground" to the present vision for Bryan's future.

Classmates and schoolmates of the four honored graduates who were present for the occasion were Ariabelle (Langley) Alexander x'36, Marion Denton x'34, Mildred (Cooley) Evans x'34, Reba (Arnold) Fitzgerald x'34, '60 Roscoe x'35 and Dorothy Hinch, Hoyt Murphy x'34, Audrey (Duggar) x'35 and Leonard Pack, Helen (Limburg) x'36 and Thomas Philpot, Ben x'34 and Mary Agnes (Hogue) x'35 Purser, Eloise (Purser) Reed x'34, Amy (Cartright) Robinson x'34, Gladys (Fine) Thomas x'34, Ralph '37 and Rebecca (Haeger) '38 Toliver, Condon Wasson x'34, Nola Watson x'35, Dorothy (Caudle) Wolske x'34, and Nina (Billingsley) Wright x'34.

Alumni Day, 1985, will continue the now traditional Golden Year Class recognition and reunion. Graduates of the Class of '35 will be contacted shortly.

ANGLEA '84 CHOSEN

John Thomas Anglea '84, most often called "Tom" or "Tommy," was chosen by the faculty to receive the Alumni Faithfulness and Loyalty award. The faculty selected Tom for this distinction because he "upholds the purpose and lifestyle of Bryan College in word and in practice, supports the programs of the college by faithful attendance and participation, and promotes the cause of the college by encouraging others to share in college life." He has also rendered volunteer service to Bryan in student development and recruitment.

This is the first year the Alumni Association has sponsored the award, which is the current graduates' counterpart to the "Alumnus of the Year" award, given to a distinguished alumnus of more than five years after graduation from Bryan. Besides meeting the criteria for receiving the alumni award, Tom was selected as Bryan's first Rhodes Scholarship candidate, and at 6' 7" was a leader on the basketball team starting at forward for his junior and senior years.

Tom will be working at a basketball camp at the University of Iowa this summer and then taking up a full-time teaching position at Worthington Christian School in Ohio this fall.

NEW JERSEY ALUMNI MEET

FIRST STUDENT RETURNS

Amy Cartright Robinson x'34, the first student enrolled at Bryan, was on campus for her class's Golden Year Anniversary reunion. Perhaps more to Mrs. Robinson's credit than her being the first enrollee is the fact that she selected the name of Bryan's yearbook. An even greater contribution was made by Amy as editor of the first Commoner, which was published in the spring of 1931.

The daughter of Rev. N. Rhea Cartright, pastor of what was then called the Southern Methodist Church in Dayton, Amy repeated her testimony at Commencement along with the class of 1984, telling how she was brought to the Lord at a revival meeting. Her life's verse is Romans 8:28.

Because of Mrs. Robinson's activity in the Dayton community and because of her family's long history in Rhea county (the county was named for her grandfather), her presence drew wide attention. As the result of an interview with a reporter from the Chattanooga News-Free Press who greeted her at the airport, her story appeared on the front page of that paper's Sunday edition, complete with a full-color photograph of Amy holding her 1931 Commoner.

The Bryan college community will long remember the visit of Amy Cartright Robinson, Bryan's first student, first Commoner editor, and now distinguished alumna.

Amy Robinson is pictured here after she presented three rare Commoners to the college for the years 1934, 1935, and 1936, in memory of her father. She is shown presenting her first quarter grade report, which she also donated to the college, to Alumni Director Steve Snyder. The presentation was made as a part of the honors section of the Commencement ceremony.

CLASS NOTES

William Logan Rector '34, Dyersburg, Tennessee, has five children--Kyle, Anna Lee, William R., Hal, and Pamela. He is retired from an oil company business and continues as Sunday school teacher in his home Baptist church. From Bryan days he values most his salvation experience and the way Dr. Rudd handled the financial problems of Bryan. He observes "We had a dedicated, no nonsense class."

Sybil Lusk '34, Chattanooga, Tennessee, is a retired secretary, who continues teaching a ladies' Bible class at the First Alliance Church. She was impressed by the ministry of Dr. George Guille and Dr. Charles Currens and appreciated the class being so small that "we were like brothers and sisters."

Robert Tibbs Maxey '34, El Paso, Texas, is director of missions at the El Paso School of Missions and an elder in the Logan Heights Church. From 1945 to 1973 he was president of the College of Scriptures in Louisville, Kentucky. At Bryan he helped to start the first student paper called The Bryan Echo in 1933. He recalls the high quality of people at Bryan, especially Dean Ryther and Dr. Samuel Quigley. He is the father of five children--Judith Ann Clark, Marilyn Tibbs Lewis, Linda Lee Chambers, Warren Asa Maxey, and Dale Angela Owens. He has an honorary doctorate from Lexington Christian College awarded in 1955.

Marion Denton '34, Evansville, Tennessee, is now retired, the father of John Morgan, Marvin Wade, and Norma Gay, a member of the Smyrna Baptist Church and chairman of the deacons and church clerk. He especially remembers A. P. Bjerregard and Dwight Ryther at Bryan.

Gladys Fine Thomas x'34, Dayton, Tennessee, is a retired cashier who continues to be assistant teacher of the Seniors Class at Garrison Baptist Church. She appreciates the help she received from Mr. Rudd, Miss Yancey, Mr. Ryther, Mr. Bjerregard and Gladys Morgan, librarian. She has three children--Jack, Gretchen, and Wm. Fletcher.

Hoyt C. Murphy x'34 is chairman of the board of Hoyt C. Murphy, Inc., Realtors in Ft. Pierce, Florida. He has two children--Peggy Murphy Haluska and Hoyt C. Murphy, Jr. (Pat). He is affiliated with the Methodist church and is past president of Chamber of Commerce and of the Board of Realtors and state president of Farm & Land Brokers. His recollections of Bryan include milking the cows before daylight, climbing the hill from town to school and faculty members Ryther, Yancey, Thayer, and Rudd.

Condon Wasson x'34, Spring City, Tennessee, is a retired school administrator. He attends the Spring City Presbyterian Church and remembers Dean Ryther.

Dorothy Caudle Wolske x'34, Manchester, Tennessee, has one adopted daughter and is grandmother of two girls. She still is a substitute teacher, treasurer of Coffee County Retired Teachers, writer for a church newspaper, and is helping to organize a church. She earned a B.S. from U.T. Knoxville and had special training at Scarritt College and Emory University and served in the area of extension nutrition with low income families. She carries memories of Mr. Rudd, Miss Yancey, and Dr. Guille who ordered for her the day before he died a Scofield Bible which she still uses. She earned tuition money by working in a gift shop across from the courthouse and paid for her books after she started teaching.

Roscoe H. Hinch x'35, Hendersonville, North Carolina, has retired from business and has four children--Carol Udart, James, Robert and Roger Hinch. He earned the B.S. degree in pharmacy and chemistry and is affiliated with the Congregational church. He appreciated most the teaching of Dean Ryther.

Joy Bedford Honeywell x'35, Three Rivers, Michigan, has three children--David, Charles, and Alice--and is a retired music and art teacher. She is an organist at the Baptist Church which she and her husband, Harold, attend. She remembers best the help of Mr. Ryther and Miss Yancey on Bryan's faculty. Both her sons attended Bryan, and David graduated in 1959. Joy now has leukemia but is feeling well and doing well.

David W. Thornton x'35, St. Louis, Missouri, is a composer of sacred music and has the Tempo Music Company in St. Louis.

Nola Watson x'35, Spring City, Tennessee, earned the B.S. at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and served with the Welfare department of Rhea County for over thirty years. She is now retired and affiliated with the Baptist Church. Of student days at Bryan she remembers best the chapel programs and basketball games. She mentions Miss Yancey, Dr. Bjerregard, and Mr. Ryther as best faculty influences in her life.

Florian Zukas x'36, Torrance, California, is staff engineer for Space and Communications Group of Hughes Aircraft Co. He is an elder in the Presbyterian Church. He and Barbara have four children, Florian, Jr., Christine Louise, and twins Ronald and Donald. He remembers helping to build the Octagon dormitory and names faculty members Dr. Rudd, Dr. Quigley, Mr. Ryther, and Julia Yancey Hogenboom as meaning the most to him.

Helen Limburg Philpot x'36, Shelbyville, Tennessee, is married to a teacher/minister, Thomas. They have two children--Thomas III and Susan P. Spears. Helen is a retired teacher after forty years of teaching and now helps operate the family business. She has the B.S. degree. She remembers from Bryan the good friends, good fellowship, and "the good times we had as a group!"

Ariabelle Langley Alexander x'36, Daisy, Tennessee, is a widowed housekeeper who attends the First Baptist Church of Soddy-Daisy. She has two children--Barbara Raines and Gerald Alexander. She appreciates the "Christian fellowship as one big family," and remembers best Miss Sybil Lusk, Mr. Judson Rudd, and Mr. Roy McMurry.

Emily McMurry Owensby, '37, Dayton, Tennessee, has retired after 35 years in high school teaching of commercial subjects. She earned the M.S. at University of Tennessee. She is active at Baptist Church in Dayton as assistant teacher for adults and also a nursery worker. She recalls from Bryan when she worked half days and attended school half days and also living at Cedar Hill and walking to Bryan Hill for classes. Of her class of 1937 with 7 graduates, 6 are still living--three of them in Dayton. Her favorite faculty members were Bertha Beekman, Mrs. Hurlburt and Dr. Currens.

Alvin Hall '40, of Orlando, Florida, has been retired for three years after working for 34 years for Hughes Supply Co., which handles plumbing and electrical materials. He and his wife, Betty, have been active members of the First Baptist Church in Orlando.

Dr. Howard C. Kee '40 was selected by the editors of Biblical Archaeological Review to judge the first BAR Publications Awards in Archaeology and the Bible. He will be one of three judges in the Best Book Relating to the New Testament category of the seven-category competition. Dr. Kee is the William Goodwin Aurelio Professor of Biblical Studies and professor of New Testament in Boston University's School of Theology. He is also chairman of the school's graduate division of religious studies.

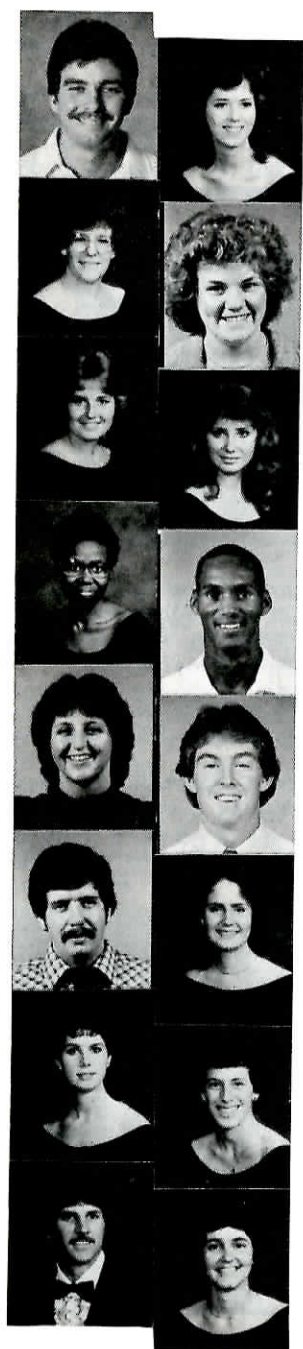

Hazel (Waller) '43 and Orville Carlson have completed the compiling of a Lisu Bible Concordance while living in Salmon Arm, British Columbia, Canada. The printing is being done by Bethany Publishers in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where the Carlsons will spend some time in helping to start the reproduction process. They hoped to visit Thailand and Burma again before the expiration of a visa on May 11.

David '52 and Mary (Grover) '53 Naff left Radio Station ELWA in Monrovia, Liberia, on February 22 to return to the States. They are living in Harrisonburg, Virginia, in order to be near Dave's mother who is in a nursing home. Dave is also considering possible surgery on his right eye.

Norma Sweeney '53 is dean of the new Child Evangelism Leadership Training Institute in Sao Paulo, Brazil, which began on February with a group of 28 students--24 girls and 4 fellows. One couple is from Chile and the rest are Brazilians.

CEF has acquired a two-story house with eleven rooms for its new CEF National Office for Sao Paulo. On May 21 Norma was scheduled to begin a year of furlough with attendance at the CEF International conference in Carbondale, Illinois, from May 22-26 and then to visit her family in Florida before starting deputation.

Marleen Beck '56 is grateful for the arrival of telephone service in Ocana, Colombia, a mountainous area. She reports that the new school year for their Bible school program is off to a good start and she is teaching Synthesis of the Old Testament, and filling in as dorm supervisor and choir director since her co-worker is on furlough. Marleen plans for her furlough from mid-July until the end of the year and would welcome opportunities to share her missionary ministry and vision.

Pearl Rathbun '56 expected to leave Korea at the end of April for her furlough from her radio and Bible teaching ministry in Seoul. She will be staying at TEAM headquarters in Wheaton, Illinois, which is also home for her parents and brother John's family.

Bob and Joy (Leslie) '56 Bostrom celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a trip to Hawaii to visit their son Danny, who had been discharged from the Navy two days prior to their arrival and was their tour guide. They also visited Tennessee and Bryan last November when Bob ran the Chickamauga Battlefield Marathon (26.2 miles) in 3:09:33, and was first place winner for the 50-and-over age group. Joy continues to work three days a week at the hospital lab. Last year she logged over 400 miles in competitive horseback riding and won her first champion and reserve champion ribbon in English and Western pleasure riding.

Elaine M. Smetters '59 recently joined the staff of Bellevue Heights Church in Phoenix, Arizona, as organist.

Robert '65 and Robin (Seaver) '65 Crane have completed three and a half years in Tok, Alaska, and plan for another year before their 1985 furlough. They plan for the Tok church to be independent by that time. For over two years Bob has been a volunteer Emergency Medical Technician with the Tok Ambulance Service with emergencies that have required from one half hour to six hours assistance.

Barry '69 and Jean (Smith) '63 Walcott are living in Katy, Texas, where Barry is working with Foleys. Jean does alterations and maintains the family including their daughter, Alissa, who is in high school.

Reiko (Suzuki) '70 and Mike O'Donnell expected to leave Pease Air Force Base in New Hampshire on June 1 to spend the month of June visiting relatives and friends. With their son, Raymond, they will report at Kadena AFB in Okinawa, Japan, on June 30, where Mike will continue his chaplain duty. Reiko is pleased with the prospect of being able to see her family in Japan after an absence of 12 years. She has been working with Protestant Women of the Chapel, Officers' Wives Club, International Wives Club, as well as choir and Christian Women's Club. Raymond is now four, a very lively youngster who loves the Lord and is studying violin in a Suzuki school and plays Bach's Minuet #1.

Jon Eisenback '74 was named Outstanding Young Man of America for 1983 and Who's Who in the South and Southwest for 1984. He was also awarded a Research Fellowship from the Department of Agriculture of the Republic of South Africa for October 1984. He has been traveling in connection with his job to Indonesia, Nigeria, Brazil, and Peru, where he was able to see Valery Parker '75. In 1982 he was a first prize winner of Nikor's International Small World Photo Contest. His wife, Marilyn (Hawkins) '75 is busy caring for their sons, Brian, 4, and Justin, 17 months.

Gloria (Cordova) x'77 Carl and classmates, Lois Tarbotton '76 and Rachael (Cowen) '76 Sherwood recently had a reunion at Gloria's home in Langhorne, Pennsylvania. Rachael and her husband, John, were returning to their home in Winona Lake, Indiana, after a meeting with the UFM board in Bala Cynwyd, Pa. Lois was visiting her family in Glen Mills, Pa. Gloria's husband, Bob, expected to graduate from Philadelphia College of the Bible in May.

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Pastor's Conference

Alumni pastors joined Dayton area alumni in the Lion's Den for the annual Pastor's Conference Alumni Luncheon on May 9. Over 50 alumni were present for this time of fellowship and reunion in the Lion's Den.

Constitution Revision Approved by Alumni

The Executive Committee extends its appreciation for your response concerning their revision of the Constitution. Your Alumni Director thanks those of you who called attention to the one glaring misprint! Be assured that the President-elect will not secede but will succeed to the Presidency!

2nd Annual Alumni Weekend and 21st Annual Family Bible Conference

Registrations for alumni weekend are triple the number of this time last year. This popular new campus alumni event is for all alumni, not just reunion classes, and it does not replace Homecoming. But it does blend in comfortably with Family Bible conference.

I want to call your attention to the family vacation possibilities of both events. We offer baby sitting service for alumni weekend events and a full program of activities for children and youth is offered during Bible Conference. Organized and individual recreational programs for the whole family are planned for all four afternoons of Family Bible conference. (Children under 3 eat free!)

Consider both events for a one-week (July 20-27) family vacation for this summer. Write or call me at the Alumni Office for details of both events.

Homecoming '84: "Pressing toward the mark."

October 5-7 are the dates for Alumni Homecoming this Fall. Classes for years ending in 9 will have their reunions at that time. The only exception is that exceptional class of 1954 who have chosen to have their 30th anniversary reunion at that time instead of Alumni Weekend in July.

You are invited to visit the campus and fellow alumni for either or both of these alumni campus events--Alumni Weekend and Homecoming '84.

WEDDINGS

Jacqueline Susan Griffin '82 and Douglas Perseghetti on February 18 at the Fairhaven Church in Kettering, Ohio. Doug is a second lieutenant at Wright Patterson Air Force Base.

Raymond Norman Korodus '83 and Wendy Ann Fehl '84 at the First United Methodist Church in Dayton, Tennessee, on May 5. The couple moved to Dallas, Texas, where Ray plans to attend seminary in the fall. Wendy is the daughter of Larry '57 and Shirley (Ardelean) '56 Fehl.

George M. Traub '80 received the Th.M. in Biblical counseling on May 18 at Grace Seminary and credits "being a Greek major at Bryan" as an immense help through his seminary years. He and Charlotte (Pryor) '81 seek the Lord's direction for a pastoral ministry.

Elsa Raab '81 returned in May from Suriname where she taught five children in her fourth and fifth grades in the Worldteam School which had a total enrollment of 23. Elsa will be living in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and plans to start working on a master's degree.

David Salyer '81 was injured with a broken foot and broken right wrist when he was in an accident caused by icy road conditions in Dayton, Ohio, late in February.

Scott Smith '81 completed his master's program in Biblical studies at Dallas Seminary for the April 30 graduation. He anticipates serving the Lord in Spain, probably teaching at the Spanish Bible Institute in Barcelona under Greater Europe Mission. While in Dallas he has been self-employed as a painting contractor and has also worked as a waiter for an elite catering company in such functions as a banquet for Senator John Glenn, feeding 2,200 people for Neimann Marcus Co., and some special functions for President Reagan and the Republican Convention. In December and January he spent five weeks in Brazil with Wycliffe translators, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koehn, the parents of his fiancée, Margaret.

Alec '83 and Tammy x'84 Harrison are in Dallas, Texas, involved in linguistics training at the Summer Institute of Linguistics. Following their parents who are translators with Wycliffe, Alec and Tammy are also planning to take God's Word to a people who do not have the written Word of God. They are enjoying their daughter, Yvonne Marie, who will be a year old on June 8.

Donna Sheppard x'83 is head teller at a bank in Houston, Texas. Her sister, Suzanne, visited at Bryan as a student prospect.

Beth Haley x'84 began an inner city ministry in Chicago in March.
